How do I apply for a grant for constructive actions?

Requirements: Family nuclei and people living together with a lack of financial solvency, protected or not by Social Assistance, who are willing to solve their housing problem by their own efforts.

Priorities: Families affected by natural catastrophes (cyclones, floods, landslides, fires, and others considered as such) whose damage is classified as total or partial loss of the home, fundamentally the cases that are in an advanced state of execution. Critical social cases, particularly those aimed at eradicating vulnerable housing conditions. Families or people who need to fix obstructions and water leaks.

The application for the subsidy is made before the Municipal Housing Directorates, in the Procedures Offices.

Applications for subsidies from natural persons will not be processed when it is to execute actions in:

Homes located in pockets or unhealthy neighborhoods, and
Homes granted for lease, and the rooms and rooms belonging to the state fund, if the subsidy action will be granted to carry out conservation actions only of the built and inside the property.

The request must have the following data:

Name and surname of the applicant, identity card, home address and location place.

Description of the actions you intend to carry out.

Willingness of the person to execute constructive actions by his own effort.

The applicant must show the document proving ownership as:

Owner, usufructuary or lessee of the property.

Assignment of use of Roof.

Land ownership or perpetual surface right.

NOTE: In the case of those affected by meteorological events (total collapse) and critical cases that do not have land ownership, their applications are accepted at the processing offices, and once the subsidy is approved, the payment of this is included in the subsidy amount.

The files are presented by the municipal director of housing to the
