Resolution 102 establishes how garage sales will proceed in Cuba. The Municipal Administration Council in full authority stipulated that Saturdays is the day to carry out this sales. This resolution explains that the sale will be made in garages, portals and other residential areas that do not obstruct traffic on sidewalks and roads; they can be organized by territorial authorities in parks and other areas; people do not require a business or self-employment license; and the items to be sold are for domestic and personal use, they can be used, pre-owned and new.

The commercialization of batches of new imported articles and of the national industry continues to be excluded in this modality; animal skins and precious woods; and food.
